CHESS CANCEL NUMBER – 515-A

"Chess in Art" Stamps, issued on 8. 1.1976 by Nicaragua.

A: 11 stamps, illustrating:

1 c, "The Chess Players" (c. 1590) by unidentified Venetian artist, possibly Ludovico Carracci (1555 – 1619) as the text of the stamp suggests.

2 c, "Arabs Playing Chess" (c.1849) by the French painter Eugene Dela-croix (1798-1863).

3 c, "Cardinals Playing Chess" ( ) by the French painter Victor Marais-Milton (1872-).

4 c, "Duke Albrecht V of Bavaria and his Consort, Anne of Austria, Playing Chess" (1552) by the German painter Hans Muelich (1516-1573).

5 c, "Buzurgmihr Explains the Game of Chess", from an early 14th century manuscript page from "Shah Namah" (the "Book of Kings", 1010), written by the Persian poet Firdausi (c. 935-1020).

10 c, an Indian miniature painting of the 17th century.

15 c, "Napoleon vs. the Turk at Schonbrunn 1809" (1956) by the Polish artist Antoni Uniechowski (1903-1976). See the Kempelen biography in Part 2.

20 c, "Game of Chess at the Palais Voss, Berlin" (1818) by the German painter Johann Erdmann Hummel (1767-1852).

40 c, "The Chess Players" (1876) by the American painter Thomas Eakins (1844-1916).

2 c, a photograph by Chester Fox from the 1972 world championship match (c.f. No. 361). The photograph has apparently been mirror-turned.

5 c, (The Playwrights) "Ben Jonson and William Shakespeare at Chess" (c. 1603) by the Flemish painter Karel Van Mander (1579-1623).

B: Souvenir sheet. It incorporates the two top values of "A" and bears a quotation, "The king's a beggar, now the play is done", from Shakespeare's play "All's Well That Ends Well". Neither the quotation nor the play has any reference to chess.

C : Same as "B", but imperforate.

Souvenir Covers.
