Postal Censorship in Arad 1941-45

Romania entered the war ion 22nd June 1941, and sided with the Hungarians, Germans and Italians. Romanian censorship was ordered on 26th June 1941, with censorship starting as of 1st July 1941.

5 major types of censor marks used in Arad between 1941 and 1945 are identified. These marks and new varieties / colours, previously unknown numbers and extended periods of usage.

Type	Known Dates of Use
Type 1	1st July 1941	Type 2	10th July 1941 to 17th January 1942
Type 3	22nd August 1941 to 7th March 1942	Type 4	Type 4 13th July 1942 to 21st November 1942 Type 4a 12th February 1942 to 10th December 1942	 Type 4  Type 4a
Type 5	9th December 1942 to 26th December 1945

The Working of the Censorship Office

The regulations governing censorship set out the hand stamps could not be changed between censors and could not be taken outside of the office. Any individual who left the censor office had their hand stamp (and therefore their number) withdrawn.

If the censor returned to work they would be given a new number.

This helps to explain the censor numbers being greater that the number of censors employed.

Cotolan sets out that the Arad office had the following number of censors.

	No. of censors in each office
	July 1, 1941	August 1944-March 1945	March 1945-Sept. 1945
Arad	29	19	12

The initial regulations set out the censorship offices but did not set out the design of the stamp that was to applied, which led to the first 4 types of censor cancels.

Further regulations that came into force on 15th December 1942 standardised the censor marks across Romania (except Bucharest) to be a box, with the censor office and the censor number, It did not however set out the size of the censor mark, and a great variety is seen. It also set out that the marks should be applied only in black.

For censorship of Arad this regulation led to the Type 5 being introduced but as can be seen the censors in Arad began using the new boxed censor marks before this date and in a variety of colours !

Censorship ended on 15th January 1946

POSTAL CENSORSHIP IN ROMANIA 1941-1946, Gheorghe Cotolan
"Romanian Postal History Bulletin" No. 19, April 1996, with some updates in No. 20, August 1996.

Type 1

Know Date of 1st July 1941

Type 1 is the censor mark used during the transitional period in Arad before it was ceded to Romania, and during its integration into Romania (last used in 1921), that has been re-used in June / July 1941.

There are 2 possible explanations for its use. Perhaps its use was at a stopgap until the new censor stamps were ready, or potentially one of the censors working in 1921 was re-engaged on this work, and used their existing mark.

Type 5 - Arad Censor with Number - Boxed

New regulations set out that as of 16th December 1942 censor marks across Romania (except Bucharest) should be standardised to be a box, with the censor office and the censor number, It did not however set out the size of the censor mark, and a variety is seen.

Each of the variants for each censor number is identified by the number in brackets after the description of the censor.

The regulations set out that the censor mark should be applied in black.

N/S - Reported to exist but not seen

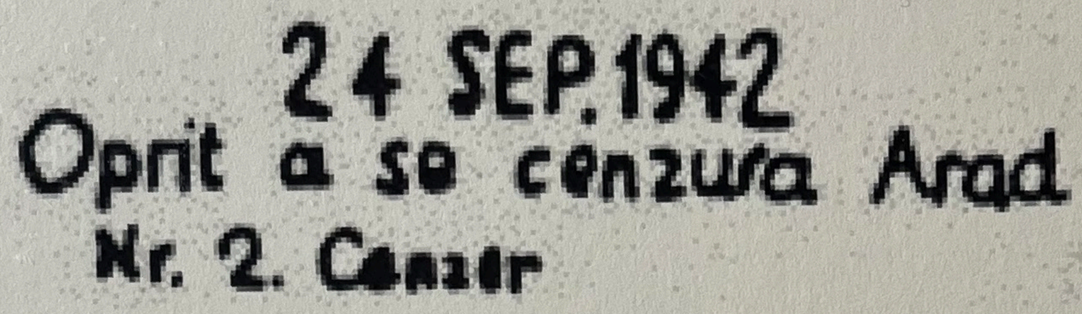
In addition to the 5 types of censor marks there is also a mark that has been reported (but not seen) for items that were passed through the office but not censored

This has been reported as used in September 1942



Mail from the following were exempted from censorship:

Official mail from state authorities
Mail from the military and statistical offices in Bucharest, Sibiu and Chisinău
Mail from the civilian state institutions
Mail from certain German Fieldposts
Mail sent from the Commercial and Industrial Chamber, the Romanian Telephone Society, the Savings and Loan Bank, the Romanian National Bank, the Peasant's Loan and Saving Bank
Mail sent from the military commanders of the commercial and industrial enterprises to military units
Mail sent to dignitaries and high officials

(legitimatia nr 208 / Dirigintele postei)

As such it was not to be censored and the Arad censor mark was to demonstrate it had been through the office, rather than censored.

This type of mail was handled by the head of the censor office which might account for the late use of this censor type.
