BRAZIL, VARIG, 1931.

I have examined the set of two blocks of four Air Mail stamps issued by VARIG on November 23rd of 1931, "Southern Cross" 1,300 reis green, overprinted in red "VARIG" and surcharged in black "R / Rs. 400" for registration, and "E / Rs. 700" for special delivery, Meyer #V-15, V-16; Sanabria #V26-V27, unused, the first with sheet margin at top, and the second with sheet margin at bottom, a colour reproduction of which is below, in true size, and am of the opinion that:

The two blocks of stamps are genuine in all respects, unused, with full original gum, and never hinged. They are entirely free from faults or repairs at the time of examination.
