Dear NBC Friends: I
now I can truthfully say that I met that great Floyd Gibbons, NBC's & famous announcer, and it was on July 11 at the Palmer House in Chicago while visiting
& the World's Fair there.
Floyd is a real fellow.
Enjoyed a fine talk and seen Mr. Gibbons broadcast too. Very seldom we miss out on his yarns. We heard
our President Roosevelt talk over your fine NBC network Tuesday night.

"It is old, old, this Grand Canyon, and yet so new it seems almost to smell of paint,—red paint, pink, scarlet. Left and right, up and down, more than half a mile deep in the earth every shade and hue of red, as far as eye can compass.

"Color is king here. Take the grandest, sublimest thing the world has ever seen, paint it as only the masters of old could paint, and you have El Canyon Grande del Colorado."

Thanks for the sweets. They are too beautiful for words
