1880-1904 The Numeral Obiterations of the
 of Petersburg Town Post.

The Numeral "obiterations" — so called because they were only used for cancelling stamps whether adhesive or printed, are obiterations — of the St. Petersburg Town Post were first introduced in 1880 when the Town Post and the Imperial Post had been amalgamated for about five years. They were always accompanied by a numeral of Petersburg cancellation. The illustrations show the typed used, the figures inside the figures show the numeral. (See B.I.R.P. 1012)
