Es brennt! Es brennt! Unser armes Städtchen brennt.
 Während einfachen böse Winde ein Meer von Feuer.
 Schon haben die Flammen die Häuser und Gassen eingeschlossen.
 Überall des Feuers Glut.
 Und ihr, Brüder, schaut zu mit verschränkten Händen?
 Sehr bald schon werden wir und unser Städtchen zur

 Es brennt! Brüder, Brüder, es brennt!

Elie Wiesel, Jewish survivor of the German Nazi concentration camps, has through his writings become a moral conscience to the world. He has touched the hearts of millions and inspired his solidarity with victims of oppression. He was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize in 1986 for his belief that the human fighting evil in the world can create a brighter future.
