PENNY STAMPS

Handstruck postmarks denoting prepayment of postage on letters sent by post in London in 1680 and 1794. These were in effect penny stamps.

*Design for the Mulready envelope issued in 1840.
This design was officially adopted, but was severely ridiculed and the envelopes were soon withdrawn.*

The "Wyon" medal from which the Queen's head was copied for the first postage stamp of 1840.

Photograph of the line engraved die prepared for production of the first stamps. Impressions of the die were transferred by means of a steel roller to the plates from which the stamps were printed.

*Proof sheet of the first (penny) stamps
April, 1840.*

Check letters to facilitate the detection of forgeries were inserted later at the two bottom corners of each stamp.
