BRITISH FORCES IN EGYPT

1936

SUEZ CANAL CO 1868

Probably forgery.

From Nov. 1, 1932 to Feb. 29, 1936, members of the British Forces in Egypt and there families were allowed to send letters to the British Isles at reduced rates. Special seals which were on sale in booklets at N.A.A.F.I. Institutes and Canteens were used instead of Egyptian stamps and were stuck on the back of the envelopes, letters bearing the seals being franked on the front with a hand-stamp inscribed "EGYPT POSTAGE PREPAID" in a double circle surmounted by a crown.
