Success and Tragedy June/July 1910 Hon. C. S. Rolls

On June 2nd 1910 the Hon. C. S. Rolls became the first man to fly the Channel from England to France and then flew back to England without landing. Postcard depicting Rolls at the controls of his Short-built Wright biplane

On July 12th - the 2nd day of the Bournemouth Aviation Meeting - the Hon. C. S. Rolls met with a fatal accident whilst flying in front of the grandstand. Similar postcard to the one above but with black surround, and posted at Bournemouth July 23rd 1910.
