

Undelivered
Returned Paid Letter

8 November 1852

Official envelope of the Dead Letter Office for returning paid letters.

Ms notation on left: " A. Malley/8 Nov. 1852/returned letter to/Mr Black".

CAUTION to the Public as to sending Property by the Post.—As it is not safe to transmit Letters containing Coin through the Post, Persons having occasion to remit small Sums, are earnestly recommended to make use of the Money Order Office. Money Orders for Sums not exceeding £10, are granted and Paid at every Post Town in the United Kingdom, and at the principal Receiving Houses in London. Persons who may desire to remit Bank Notes or Drafts Payable to Bearer, or other value of £5, in addition to the Postage sent, the Numbers, Dates, and course will be to get such Note With the given convenience and the power given of will in all cases be in full.

The enclosed Letter not having been delivered for the reason assigned thereon, was opened here by the Officer appointed by Her Majesty's Postmaster-General for that purpose, and is now returned to the sender on payment of the Postage.

General Post Office,
Dublin.

G. C. CORNWALL,
Secretary.

Above is copy of the inside flap - a caution about sending valuables through the mail and a statement about the return procedure. Return postage was required from the sender.