A second row of horizontal perforations, measuring 12.3, distinguishes this block as a Melbourne printing. All other sides are perforated 11.

1889 Reprints

Reprints on thin card in issued colors, made from the defaced copper plates, engraved by C W Coard. The One Penny stamp is from row 1, stamp 1. The Four Pence stamp is from plate 1, row 4, stamp 2. The Note Printing Branch, Melbourne, destroyed the plates in 1950.

De La Rue or "Sideface" issues of 1870-71, 1876

The first "specimen" stamps carried no overprint to distinguish them from those issued for normal use. However, they were specially printed on unwatermarked paper, and it is recorded that only 480 of each value were prepared.

Reprints on thin card
