Rigi Kaltbad issued first Swiss hotel post stamps

Locals of the World

By L.N. Williams

Hotel post stamps were used to show payment of a fee for mail conveyance from an isolated hotel to government posts. Many Swiss hotels operated such hotel posts and issued their own local hotel post stamps.

The hotels were located in the mountains where visitors went for their health and sport.

Until 1883, the hotel post stamps were not prohibited by the Swiss postal authorities. Also, until that time, the hotels provided a service that the official posts did not [illegible] 5,000 feet above sea level.

The hotel's proprietor, T. Segesser-Faaden, instituted a service to and from the government post office at Weggis, about 5 miles away. He Also, two types of the design exist.

On one, the starlike ornaments are five-pointed and clear. The general impression is good.

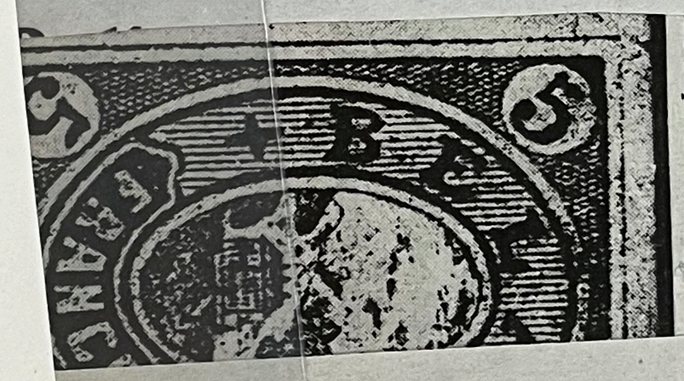

On the other type, the stars are badly formed, the gen[illegible] have not been assigned to any person.

That was not the end of the story because further research produced strong evidence, published in 1982, that that type was an issued stamp, actually the first to be [illegible]ssued.

So the forgery-become-[illegible]ssay-become-issued-stamp is now listed in the 1991 edition of the Amateur Collector's Stamp Catalogue of Switzerland and priced at U.S. $15 unused compared to $9 for the imperforate stamp with the clear five-pointed star.

For further information about the catalog, write to the publisher at Box 242, London N2 OYZ, England. ■

Two isolated

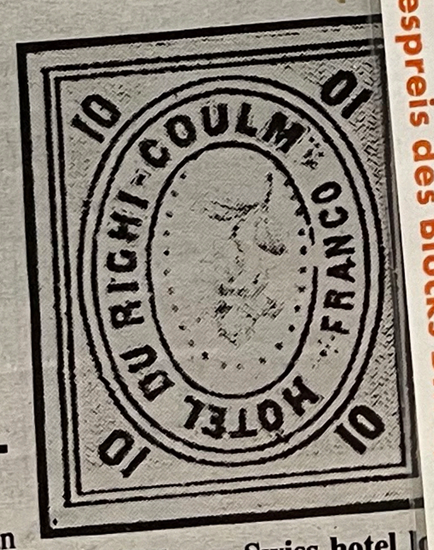

Locals of the World

By L.N. Williams

In 1870, two Swiss hotels isolated on the mountains issued stamps for their guests to use to pay for mail carriage between the hotels and the nearest post office.

Rigi Kulm (the German language spelling) was one of the hotels; Maderanerthal was the other.

The Swiss posts did not serve the hotels, and the hotel

By that time, the hotel posts that had issued stamps for mail conveyance were Rigi Kaltbad, doing so in 1864; Rigi Scheideck, 1868; Maderanerthal, 1870; Rigi Kulm, 1870; Kurort Stoos, 1872; and Belalp, 1873.

Up to then and later, the following hotels issued advertising labels, some of which were used as postage stamps: Hotel Victoria, Arosa, 1897; Hotel-Pension Sonnenberg, Engelberg, 1874; Hotel Bellevue, Glion-sur-Montpreux, 1897; Murren, 1897; Rigi-Staffel, 1879; Hotel du Mont Prosa, St. Gothard, 1883; and Hotel Rhatia, Thusis, 1897.

The following three hotels in St. Mortiz also released advertising labels: Neues Stahlbad, 1892; Engadinerhof, 1897; and Privat Hotel Tognoni, 1897.

The hotel posts of Switzerland form a fascinating field for collecting and study. ■
