ROBIGANA TAS

ESSAY
Plate Proof single of the "Ideal" stamps in intense black, printed by Waterlow Bros. & Layton to raise funds for the London International Philatelic Exhibition in 1912

T.S. Harrison used the design of the King's head for the 1914 1d engraved King George V in conjunction with Herman Altmann's winning design in the 1911 competition. (T.S. Harrison left Waterlow Bros. & Layton, London to take up an appointment as Commonwealth Printer in 1912)
Also 1914 1d Engraved for the comparison of the King's head with its vertical shading.

Desroches: a small island of 1.25 square miles in the Amirantes Group, 130 miles south-west of Mahe, Seychelles. Copra and dried fish are exported.

Diego Garcia: the largest and most southerly of a group of 14 islands comprising the Chagos Archipelago, which covers a sea area of 14,200 square miles.

Aldabra Islands: an elongated atoll of 4 main islands enclosing a lagoon of over 50 square miles. A research station for the study and conservation of many rare species of flora and fauna has been established by the Royal Society.

Farquhar Group: 2 islands of coconut plantations measuring 3 square miles, lying 160 miles north-east of the Malagasy Republic. It is the most southerly group of the British Indian Ocean Territory.
