

KATHUMAR – Type C3 (ALWAR)

Type C3 (R.J. Bennis, India Study Circle, "Handbook of Indian Philately, pp. Alwar /25), circular postmark with town name and date inscribed in English. Of the six types of cancels, C3 has the town name around the top and only "ULWAR STATE" around the bottom segment. The date is inscribed across the center in a frame shaped similar to a Katar dagger with the dagger pointing to the left and, unlike C2, the dagger is shorter and does NOT touch either end of the circle.
