Regd 5 DE 95 from Liverpool, this 2d PSRE with a fresh obliterated 5d stamp found its way to Grand Turk in 12 days, where ~~James~~ the Cameron (you know him from Tortola, St. Vincent and later Sierra Leone) were probably spending Xmas together. Added to this lot is 1/- SG 3, fresh and nicely use, neat scissor trimming E £4.8 first time ever we are an example of M dide rose appearance, we suspect been used, but that's beside the point: we have never seen one with margins and perfs. of this quality, with traces of the adjoining stamps at north and east, and the west margin is even wider, so it's presumed to be from left of sheet E£30

 We must SA 3; centred left, scissor-separated at foot, yet they don't come much fresher and more attractive than this one E£30

CrTV3
 We now accept that a diagonal pen stroke (like on 1d SA1, separated by scissors as usual) denoted cancellation before the TI helms reached the islands - so, early used, cat. £55 E£14

 It is usually very difficult to see or demonstrate that the Turks helms read
 "TI"; so here is a really strong central strike on 1d SG1 that will do the job as well as any we've seen E£24
