1ST - 4TH NOV. 1973.

The special hand-stamp for the first day of the exhibition depicts a lighted candle the symbol of peace and goodwill of Christmas.

The special hand-stamp ties in with the first day of issue of the special Irish Christmas Postage Stamps (3½p and 12p)

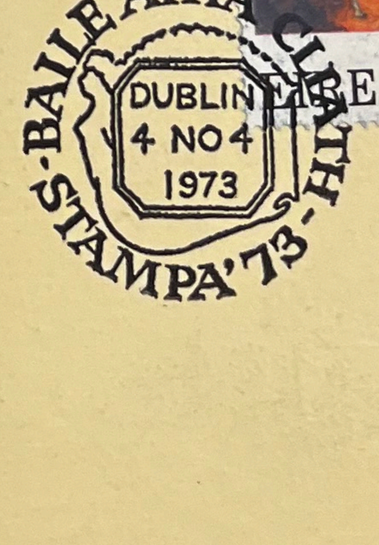

The central motif of the special post-mark for the last day of the exhibition is modelled on the rare "Paid" post-mark of 1811 known as "the MERMAID"

Patron: The Minister for Posts & Telegraphs

I am honoured to have been invited by the organising committee to act as Patron of Stampa '74.

Naturally, I am personally very keen that interest in Irish Philately should be stimulated and I am quite sure that Stampa can make a valuable contribution in achieving this. I am very pleased indeed that
