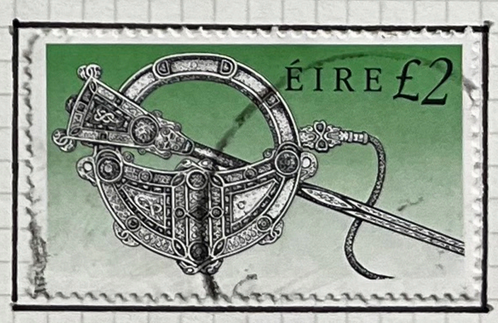
Enschedé Printing.



In late '95 An Post contracted Enschedé of the Netherlands to printe the above six values which were in short supply.

A minor graphical change occurred in the £1, £2 and £5 values namely the £ sign

Also the background graduation on all values differs from those by the Irish Security Stamp Printing Ltd. and therefore there is a different appearance to these stamps!!

4th DEFINITIVE SERIES

The first phase of the 4th Definitive Series will be issued on 8 March 1990. The new series replaces the current series which was introduced in 1982.

The theme for the new definitives is "Irish Heritage and Treasures" and the six stamps which will be issued on 8 March feature the following artifacts:

(1) 26p — Lismore Crozier, made for Nial Mac Meic Aeducain, who was Bishop of Lismore from 1090-1113.

(2) 30p — Enamelled Latchet Brooch, of a type commonly used for fastening garments in Ireland in the 5th and 6th centuries.

(3) 32p — The Broighter Collar, a torc which was part of a hoard of treasures discovered at Broighter, Co. Derry, dates from about the 1st century BC.

(4) 41p — Silver Thistle Brooch, so called because the terminals of the ring and the pinhead resemble the thistle flower, made in the later 9th century.

(5) 50p — The Broighter Boat, from the same hoard as the Collar, represents an Iron Age sea-going vessel, and is made of beaten sheet gold.

(6) £1 — The Ardagh Chalice, one of the most famous of Ireland's ancient treasures, it was found near Ardagh, Co. Limerick in 1868 by a youth digging potatoes. It dates from the 8th century which was the period when early Irish art was at its height.

The stamps were designed by Q Design featuring drawings by Michael Craig.

The first day cover was designed by Michael Craig and features a bronze Crucifixion Plaque from the 11th/12th century.

The stamps and first day cover were printed by Irish Security Stamp Printing Ltd.

Issued 8th March 1990.
