Dear Sir

Having come to a determination of declining Business on the 1st of March next, I have considered it most for the advantage of my friends, to resign it in favor of my particular friend, Mr. William Wentworth, who served his apprenticeship to my late husband, Mr. John Hooper, and has purchased my house and establishment. From his well known care and attention to business, I beg leave to recommend him to you in the strongest manner, as a person every way well qualified to give you the greatest satisfaction in all the business you may transact with him. Your compliance with this request, will confer an additional favor on

Your obliged and obedient Servant.
