Illegal overprint on 1972 G.B. stamp, unused, and on cover, cancelled Armagh.

A collector in Armagh has come across an interesting item not entirely unconnected with this subject. It is an overprint in black on the U.K. 1972 Explorers stamp, similar to those produced in 1971 by Provisional Sinn Fein. The overprint reads "SUPPORT/OFFICIAL/I.R.A." Our correspondent has seen a couple of panes of 25 which might indicate that, like the other overprints, that these were produced in stereos of 25, i.e. quarter-sheets. He also has two covers addressed to Armagh with two examples of the overprints tied by Armagh machine cancel (wavy lines) with an indecipherable date in 1973.

1886 POSTCARD INCORRECTLY ADDRESSED TO UPPER [UNDER BALLSBRIDGE] INSTEAD OF LOWER [UNDER THE G.P.O.] BAGGOT ST. CORRECTED AND STAMPED WITH OFFICE IDENTIFICATION,BB IN A DIAMOND FOR BALLSBRIDGE

Previously reported only for 1874, this is a late usage of the Diamond with the letters "BB". It is believed to have been used as a redirection mark at the Ball's Bridge District Office. Another explanation for the BB marking is that of Blind Bag which was the bag for difficult -- redirected/incomplete; addresses which were passed to an inspector of such letters within the Post Office in transit
