My Dear Matt I have had the Printer and Captn Coates here all day. The memoires is now perfectly well regulated between them - Coates has lent Maps of the Island which makes the Book inestimable no such thing ever seen in Europe, he would not take any Money for the(sic) are very interesting and beautiful. The proof sheets the Printer is to send to Captn. Coates so that every thing will be perfectly correct and it is better to have a thing well done or not done at all - names and places very incorrect - names put in that never existed and others left out.

The Printer said a vast deal about being paid and that he must speak to his Brother and he would write to you about it. I requested he would go on with the printing - no doubt of his being paid the Book would sell well, I am sure it will bring more than £1000 - I have sent many to purchase and not one to be had - so what is become of them - he says I desired them not to be circulated. I certainly wished them not to be sent to England, I would be sorry to prevent any one here from buying them, and if he had twice as many the(sic) would be sold - and I even told him he could alter letters with a tipe or a pen -

Write to Cumming the Book Seller to settle with the printer immediately or it will not be done - and to sell off the first addition(sic) immediately - the Printer said there was 350 Coppies so what sold will bring cash at 4.4 a piece.

I shall send many there for them so I shall know how it is - no more paper in the House and the Post just going out. I wish you pay at hearing from Sackville write to me by return of Post yours AG love to all Frends(sic) 22 Decembr.

Head Quarters of the Army at the Cantonment of Wattervreeden near Bativa(sic) August 11th 1811
The Commander in Chief takes the earliest opportunity of expressing his bublic(sic) thanks to Col. Gillespie for his conduct yesterday, he entirely approves the gallant manner in which that Officer profitted by the permission.

Many merry Christmass to you all you must excuse every thing I am in such a hurry - paper some blot on I had no other.

Integral address leaf to....M.B. Taylor Esqr., Dundalk with the scarce 'HOLLES St/PENNY POST' and '1' with other postmarks.
