SAORSTÁT ÉIREANN.

Extract from "Iris an Puist" No.6? 10 October 192?

OFFICIAL POSTAGE.

Communications bearing the "Official Paid" design.

Reciprocal Arrangements between the Saorstat and Great Britain.

An arrangement has been arrived at between the Saorstat Post Office and the British Postal Administration under which letters enclosed in covers bearing the "Official Paid" design of "Saorstat Eireann" or communications on cards, forms,&c., which bear the imprint of that design, will be valid for posting in Great Britain and Northern Ireland; a reciprocal agreement being entered into as regards similar covers &c. issued by British Government Departments which may be posted in the Saorstat.

The British "Official Paid" design should, therefore, be recognised as valid for the purpose of indicating prepayment of covers, cards, and forms, posted in the Saorstat and addressed to places in Great Britain and Northern Ireland.

There is no provision for letters,&c., bearing the "Official Paid" design of either country being posted without prepayment outside the Irish Free State and Great Britain and Northern Ireland.
